IT K. HOPE

FILIPINO POINTS OUT HOUSES THAT HE STOLE FROM

Cruz Makes Trip With Police and Adds Five Burglaries to His Confession

Five more burglaries were admitted Saturday by Emencio de la Cruz, the escaped convict who was trapped Thursday night by Captain Arthur McDuffie and detectives and who confessed committing many robberies during the last two months in Honolulu.

Saturday Cruz went with Sergeant John Kellett and Detective Ocampo, Filipino interpreter, on a trip about the city and voluntarily pointed out five places which he had visited. Although he would not admit going to the Japanese temple on Aala lane where the Japanese priest, Kawasaki, was stabbed, the police believe he will tell of more robberies later.

Entrance was effected by Cruz in nearly every instance by opening an unlatched rear window and some one was in every house at the time.

At the William Marshall home, where the revolver was taken, Cruz said a woman was awake and reading while he sacked the place.

As an escaped convict, Cruz has about 40 years yet to serve, says McDuffie. Therefore he may not be tried for the recent offenses.

Additional robberies admitted to-day by Cruz are the following:

Ah Koo home, 1230 Asylum road, last Saturday, pair of shoes and $14 taken.

K. Mayeda place on King street near Kalakaua avenue, tobacco and papers, cake and some money taken in May.

Japanese temple, 1722 Liliha street, July 15 (same night of trouble in other Japanese temple, Aala lane).

I. B. Kim, Holokahana avenue off Liliha street, July 13 (same night of Kono robbery); left knife, with which he is thought to have stabbed Kawasaki, and took pair of shoes.

S. P. Kena, 1211 Pua lane, two weeks ago. Took small searchlight, which has been recovered.

Several other places which have been entered by burglars recently were pointed out to Cruz by the police, but he did not recognize them, he said.

McDuffie says that four watches stolen at various times by Cruz and which have been identified and claimed by grateful owners are alone worth $350, and that his robberies, exclusive of food and clothing, probably total over $1000.

STEAM ROLLER DAMAGED, HIT BY FREIGHT TRAIN

A steam roller belonging to the road department was brought into Honolulu for repairs this afternoon as a result of a collision between it and a freight train at Waikeala Sunday morning. The roller stalled on the track and the driver ran back to flag the oncoming train but the engineer failed to see his signal and ran into the roller. No one was hurt.

GET IT FIRST—NOT LAST

When a cold grips your system it is convincing proof that your condition is weakened—remember that. It is risky indeed to simply trust your strength to throw it off, because neglected colds have brought more serious sickness than any other one thing, while weakening cathartics and stimulating drugs are often depressing and dangerous.

The one best treatment for any cold—the one so often relied on when others fail, is the powerful blood-nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the very sources of bodily strength to suppress the present cold and generate strength to thwart further sickness.

Get Scott's first, not last—and insist on the genuine—always free from alcohol and injurious drugs.

KING ACCEPTS TRUSTEESHIP; TO FILE BOND

Trustees Will Appeal From Ashford's Decision Soon as Decree is Signed

Charles E. King will accept the appointment as a trustee of the Bishop Estate. Simultaneous with his statement of acceptance comes the announcement from the remaining trustees that they will appeal to the supreme court from Circuit Judge Ashford's decision appointing King.

A. F. Judd, a trustee, says: "We have nothing to say for publication except that an appeal will be filed as soon as Judge Ashford signs the final decree." Neither Judd nor W. O. Smith, another trustee, would comment on whether the trustees favor the appointment of King. Both declared, however, that they did not care to discuss personalities.

Mr. Smith said: "In naming Mr. Williamson to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of S. M. Damon, the trustees acted along lines which they considered would be for the good of the schools and the estate, and the judges of the supreme court, after inquiring into the matter, approved of the selection and appointed him."

The reason why the matter was referred to Judge Ashford, as set forth in the decision, is on account of the judicial act which was amended after Mrs. Bishop's will had been enforced for some time, under which it was held that the appointment be subject to the approval of the circuit judge having jurisdiction in the territory and I presume that the disposal of the matter will lie directly with that court."

To File Bond Tuesday.

King says that he probably will file his $100,000 bond tomorrow, upon the return of Circuit Judge Ashford from the country.

"I have known the present trustees for some time," he adds, "but not intimately. I feel, however, that I know the schools personally, having been both student and teacher there."

Holmes and Olson, who represent the trustees, say that the main contention in the appeal will be that the justices of the supreme court have the power to appoint the trustees of the estate when vacancies occur. Both schools pleased.

The news of the appointment of King as trustee of the Bishop Estate was greeted with much satisfaction by the alumni of the Kamehameha schools, says Harold Godfrey, president of the Kamehameha Alumni Association. "We had been waiting anxiously for weeks for Judge Ashford's decision."

"It is the talk of the town among alumni and alumnae, and everywhere it is to be heard the opinion that Judge Ashford appointed the choice of the schools as expressed at a meeting held last month, when Mr. King's name was put forward."

The former students feel that, with King on the board of trustees, the standard of the Kamehameha schools will be looked into and cared for much better than in the past, and that many improvements will result from his being an active member of the board."

ST. LOUIS NIGHT AT HEINIE'S

Tonight the dance at Heinie's Tavern will be in honor of the officers of the St. Louis and their friends. An excellent dinner will be served from 7 until 9 and dancing during the whole evening. The reengagement of the pleasing ballad singer, Miss Kyla Gibbons, has proved a wise move on the part of the management and her songs are encored heartily. Come out and have a dinner by the ocean and dance to the best music and on the best floor in town.—Adv.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS GREAT COMEDY AND VAUDEVILLE AT THE BIJOU

Genuine comedy in the photo-drama is a rare luxury and as a consequence when one of those films shows up in which there are plenty of laughs, secured without the aid of "rough stuff" and "slap-stick," it proves a treat that calls forth all of the patrons of the silent stage. Such a film is now being shown at the Bijou theater, "A Night Out," with May Robson in the star part. There also appears in the cast a number of comedians and comedienne whose work is second only to that of the star.

Another interesting film shows the inner workings of Universal City, Cal., where is located the largest stage on the world and where the photo-play is put through the numerous processes of manufacture. This picture takes the audience from the scenario room to the projecting room, in the latter the finished product being shown for the edification of those actors and actresses who took part.

Closing the bill comes the headliner, Herbert Brooks, card manipulator and performer of the great trunk mystery. Brooks is a veritable wizard with a deck of cards and does everything with them except make them talk. This act is a headliner on "big time," and Brooks has made several trips over Orpheum and Keith wheels on the mainland and is at the present time bound for the mainland after a successful world's tour.

CLARK FEATURE AT THE LIBERTY

Those who have seen Marguerite Clark in her many previous offerings at the Liberty theater need not be told that she is good. They have seen her in "Helene of the North," "Seven Sisters," "Gretta Green," "Still Waters," "The Pretty Sister of Jose" and "The Prince and the Pauper." However, it will be an injustice to edit for any admirer of this dainty little star to miss "Out of the Drifts."

"Out of the Drifts" is a film similar to "Helene of the North," the main difference being in the locale. The latter had for a setting the trackless wastes of the British Northwest, while the former is in the Swiss Alps. In "Out of the Drifts" Miss Clark appears as a shepherdess whose knowledge of the world is confined to her native pasture lands and their background of rugged mountains. A worthless Englishman of means drifts across her horizon and the girl is saved only through the fact that she is unsophisticated.

"The Iron Claw," the latest serial to feature the popular Pearl White, opens with the first half of the present week and promises to abound in thrills baffling the ability of its star.

TREY OF HEARTS GRIPPING STORY

"The Trey of Hearts," the serial photo-drama that is being shown for the first half of the week at the Hawaii theater, the initial installment being on the screen during the present week, comes to Honolulu with recommendations that place it well in the forefront of serial offerings. The feature offering for the first half of the week brings to Honolulu a new star and one who is already popular. Miss Regina Badet is the star and she promises to bid for highest honors as an emotional actress. "No Greater Love" is the photo-drama and it is a tale of daring intensity, revealing the wonderful power of mother-love.

Miss Badet is seen as Sudanah, a dancer who has won for herself fame among the highest, but whose life has been beset by worldly perils from which it is her desire to shield her daughter. The care of this child is Sudanah's chosen lifework and no effort is too trying, no ordeal too severe that will further this desire, this mother-love. When murder will clear the way she forces her wealthy husband to commit murder, and in the great finale she lays down her own life for her child.

OPENING BIDS ON MANOA BONDS MAY BE DELAYED

Bids for Manoa bonds will not be opened on August 6 as the call provides, if A. M. Cristy, acting city attorney, is able to induce the supervisors to postpone the event. He intends to ask that the opening be put off for two weeks, or until the test suit filed Friday is decided.

"I want the legality of the issue to be determined before the bids are opened," he said. "Then bidders on the issue will be certain of what they are bidding on."

He is working with the attorneys for the bankers who are bringing the test suit and hopes to have the case disposed of soon.
